

Skit Title: “Lost in Screen”

Theme:

Impact of mobile addiction on relationships and real life

Characters:

1. Narrator
 2. Rahul (Mobile addict)
 3. Mother
 4. Friend (Aman)
 5. Teacher / Doctor
-

Scene 1: At Home

(Rahul sitting, scrolling phone continuously)

(Non-verbal: No eye contact, hunched posture, fast scrolling)

Mother: Rahul! Come eat food 🍲

Rahul: (without looking) 2 minutes...

Mother: You said this 1 hour ago!

Rahul: (irritated) Maa please! I’m busy!

(Non-verbal: Anger, ignoring gestures)

Narrator:

“In today’s world, people are connected to phones... but disconnected from family.”

Scene 2: With Friend

Aman: Rahul bro! Long time, let’s talk!

Rahul: (still on phone) Hmm... yeah...

Aman: (sad) You’re here, but not really here.

(Non-verbal: Friend shows disappointment, Rahul distracted)

Narrator:

“Friendship needs attention... not just online presence.”

Scene 3: College/Class

Teacher: Rahul! Answer this question.

Rahul: (confused, didn't listen) Sir... I...

Teacher: Always on phone! This will ruin your future.

(Non-verbal: Nervousness, embarrassment)

Scene 4: Realization (Turning Point)

(Rahul walking while using phone → almost hits something / falls)

Rahul: Oh no!

Doctor/Teacher:

“This is not just addiction... it's danger.”

(Pause – emotional expression)

Scene 5: Change

(Rahul keeps phone aside, talks to mother & friend)

Rahul:

I'm sorry... I was lost in my phone.

Now I choose real life ❤️

Mother: (smiles, hugs)

Friend: Welcome back bro!

Final Message (All Together):

“Use mobile... don't let mobile use you.” 📱 ❌

★ Performance Tips (Important for Marks):

Verbal Skills:

- Clear voice, proper pauses
- Show emotions (anger, regret, happiness)

Non-Verbal Skills:

- Eye contact
- Facial expressions
- Body language (very important!)